FAN HEART

Cherub, by
NSIKAK UDOFIA

Hello people!

Once again the Epoch Team has seen another title conceived almost two decades ago, come to birth. This one was created on a sketch pad in year 2000. We would share original concept art in upcoming editions. Thanks to everyone who believed in this dream especially our fans.

This zone right here is all about our fans. This is where we show and receive love from the fans.

We were blown away particularly by this fan whose work is displayed above. We don't know if it has ever happened that before a comic title is released, there's already Fan Art. That was exactly what Nsikak Udofia did and tagged us in this beautiful rendition of one of the characters Cherub (Omawunmi Coker) from Teen Angels. It is just all shades of Awesome!

We hope you all enjoyed the comic. Kindly send us comments and feedback on any of the platforms below or send us awesome fan stuff and you could be published in the next edition

Cheerz!
